

Tri-Valley CAREs

Graphic Artist Intern

Who We Are:

Tri-Valley CAREs works to promote global security by stopping the further development of nuclear weapons in the U.S. Tri-Valley CAREs was founded in 1983 in Livermore, California, by concerned neighbors living around the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory (LLNL), one of two locations where all U.S. nuclear weapons are designed. Tri-Valley CAREs monitors nuclear weapons and environmental clean-up activities throughout the nuclear weapons complex, with a special focus on Livermore Lab and the surrounding communities.

Intern Description:

1. Design layout for outreach materials.
2. Design parade, rally and march materials.
3. Create banners.
4. Work on image branding in campaigns.

Qualification:

- Advanced layout and design skills (Adobe Illustrator, InDesign, comparable)
- Willingness to learn about environmental protection, nuclear, peace, justice and public health issues;
- Ability to meet deadlines; and
- Team player and work in an atmosphere of consensus.

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS: Tri-Valley CAREs is a multi-cultural organization and welcomes all applicants. Internships are non-paid and available on an on-going semester, quarter or Summer basis. Work schedules are designed to fit each intern's class schedule. Assigned tasks are tailored with an eye toward fulfilling internship credit requirements. The intern's personal areas of interest and study are taken into consideration when assigning tasks and work. Upon successful completion of an Internship, we offer interns letters of recommendation and assistance in finding other internships or work. Interns will need to provide their own transportation.

CONTACT:

Tara Dorabji, Outreach Director of Tri-Valley CAREs at 2582 Old First Street, Livermore, CA 94550, Telephone: (925) 443-7148, Fax: (925) 443-0177
email: tara@trivalleycares.org or visit us at our web site www.trivalleycares.org