

Tri-Valley CAREs
2011 Board of Directors and Officers

Janis Kate Turner, President, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 1985; BA in Education; public school teacher in Livermore for more than 30 years; retired from full-time teaching in 2003; substitute teaches in Livermore; represents Tri-Valley CAREs on the Dept. of Energy/Environmental Protection Agency Community Work Group on the Superfund cleanup of contaminated soil and groundwater at Livermore Lab.

Livermore, CA

Martha Priebat, Vice-President, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 1984; MS in Organic Chemistry, MA in Clinical Psychology; retired psychotherapist, former data analyst at the Dept. of Energy's Sandia National Laboratory; serves as Tri-Valley CAREs' representative on the Alameda County Health Dept.'s task force on plutonium-contaminated sludge, liaison to Pleasanton City Council.

Pleasanton, CA

Loulena Miles, Treasurer, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since high school in 1995; BA in Environmental Studies at UC Santa Cruz, JD Golden Gate University; served as Tri-Valley CAREs' first Staff Attorney for 6 years; presently employed as a private public-interest environmental law firm as an Associate Attorney called Adams Broadwell Joseph and Cardoza.

Richmond, CA

Mary Perner, Secretary, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 2003; tutors students at Twin Valley Learning Center; Tri-Valley CAREs' community organizer 2005-2007; participates in Tri-Valley CAREs' support group for Livermore Lab workers made ill by on the job exposures

Livermore, CA

Tara Dorabji, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 2001; BA in Environmental Studies at UC Santa Cruz; Community Programs Manager at the non-profit Streetside Stories in San Francisco; Co-host of KPFA radio's La Onda Bajita program; former Outreach Director at Tri-Valley CAREs 2001-2006.

San Francisco, CA

Jo Ann Frisch, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 1988; local artist who designed the group's logo; retired from staff position at Sunol Regional Wilderness; volunteers in Tri-Valley CAREs' banner, poster art and other materials development activities.

Livermore, CA

Marylia Kelley, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 1983; BA in Humanities, Journalism; Executive Director, Tri-Valley CAREs.

Livermore, CA

Beverly King, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 2002; retired school teacher in Tracy, Banta and Stockton areas; former California Teachers Association representative in San Joaquin County; currently serves as Tri-Valley CAREs' liaison to the Livermore City Council, senior centers and civic organizations.

Livermore, CA

Matthew Liebman, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 2004; JD Stanford Law School; served as Tri-Valley CAREs' legal intern while in law school in 2004; presently employed as a staff attorney at the Animal Legal Defense Fund.

El Cerrito, CA

Nick Chan, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 2010, JD candidate at the University of the Pacific, MacGeorge School of Law for 2011; legal intern at Tri-Valley CAREs, summer 2010; interested in environmental and administrative law.

Fremont, CA

Iti Talwar, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 2009; JD from the University of Santa Clara, BA in Economics from UC Irvine; legal intern at Tri-Valley CAREs from 2009-2011; interested in environmental and open government issues.

Livermore, CA